SATURDAY EVENING, MAR. 31, 1804

There were 328 mineral springs in the United States last year, the waters of which were sold at a valuation o. over four millions of dollars.

At every point at which the Kossuth funeral train stopped on its way from Turin to Buda Pesth enthus a tie tributes were paid to the memory of the | atriot.

At Darlington, S. C., on Thursday, the citizens armed themselves to resist a threatened raid of dispensary spies on private houses in search of contraband liquor. Governor Tillman called out the military and the citizens took away the company's guns. Quiet was restor

A committee in New York propose to hold a meeting in the Holy Land on Christmas eve, 1899, on the spot where the shepherds received the announcement of the birth of Christ, and to ring a bell connected with all telegraph systems, so that each stroke of the ciapper will be repeated on every instru-ment in the world.

The pension rolls will be greatly cularged by a decision of Assistant Secrecary of the Interior Reynolds, admitting to the rolls the names of a large number of insane, idiotic and permanently helpless minor children of deceased soldiers, where the pensions of the former had ceased by the children at-taining the age of sixteen years prior to the passage of the act of June 27, 1890.

Miss Sarah Billings and her sister, Linda, aged thirty-five and forty years, respectively, were found dead in bed at Winchester, Olio, on Thursday, A note explained that their death was by poison, self-administered, because one of them was intending to get married, but love for each other prevented them from enduring separation. Therefore, they chose death. They were well-to-do, and have no relatives.

The Methodist University fund has been increased by a recent gift to $1, 100,000, and Bishop Hurst is in almost daily receipt of letters concerning the university work and offering sums under certain conditions. Over $65,000 have been pledged by ministers in various sections toward the erection of Asbury Hall, one of the buildings of the university. It is said work will be begun on the buildings in Washington u about two months.
